

RUSSIAN LULLABYE written by Irving Berlin

As performed by Garcia and Grisman

(Spoken)

Where the dreamy Volga flows
There's a lonely Russian rose
Gazing tenderly down upon her knee
Where a baby's brown eyes glisten
Listen . . .

Dm //// ////                    (Dm+C) ////        G // Gm //

Every night,                    you'll hear her croon

Dm//// A7//// Dm//// C////

A Russian            lullaby

F//// ////        F7////Bb//Bbm//

Just a plaintive little        tune

F//D7//G//C//                    F//// ////

When        baby            starts to cry

A7//// ////        Bb////A7////

Rock-a-bye my baby

Dm////        F//// Bb////A7////

Somewhere there        may        be

Dm//// ////

A land, that's free

Gm//// ////

For you and me

Dm////                    A7//// Dm//// (To Repeat: Bb//A7//)

And a Russian        lullaby

(End: Tag last 3 lines)