Amelia Earhart's Last Flight Red River Dave McEnergy

Verse 1:

G C
A ship out on the ocean sees a speck up in the sky.
D7 G
Amelia Earhart flying by that day.
G C
With her partner Captain Noonan on the second of July
D7 G
The plane fell in the ocean far away.

Verse 2:

They'd radioed position, saying everything was well
Although the fuel in the tank was running low.
They'd land on Howland Island and refuel their monoplane
And off across the ocean they would go.

Chorus:

C G
There's a beautiful, beautiful field
A7 D7
Far away in a land that is fair
G C
Happy landings to you Amelia Earhart
D7 G
Farewell first lady of the air.

Verse 3:

A half an hour later an SOS was heard
The signal weak, but her voice was brave
Over shark infested waters the plane went down that night
In the blue pacific to a watery grave

Chorus

Verse 4:

Now you know the story of this dreadful tragedy
We pray she comes home safely once again
In the years to come though others blaze a trail across the sky
We'll ne'er forget Amelia and her plan Chorus: Tag last line then end.

VENDOLA CAFÉ

(sung to the tune of Red Rose Café by Pierre Kartner), Fast 3/4 Time

1:

Gm
They come from the farms and the factories too
D
And they all soon forget who they are.
The cares of today are soon washed away
Gm
As they sit at a stool by the bar,
Gm
The girl with green eyes in the Rolling Stones shirt
Cm
Doesn't look like she works on the land.
Gm
The man at the end, he's a very good friend
D G
Of a man who sells cars second hand.

CHORUS:

G
Down at the Vendola Café in the Harbor
There by the port just outside San Rafael.
C G
Everyone shares in the songs and the laughter,
D 1.2.3[Gm] 4.[G]
Everyone there is so happy to be there.

Gm
The salesmen relax with a few pints of beer
D
As they try not to speak about trade.
The poet won't write any verses tonight
Gm
He may sing a sweet serenade.
Gm
The grey haired old man at the piano will play
Cm
Any song that you wanted to hear

That pretty young thing doesn't
Gm
know how to sing
D G
But the customers give her a cheer

CHORUS:

3:
Gm
Now outside in the real world
The race is still on
It's all gone a little bit mad
In circles we go and it's good to know
Gm
Of a place where good times are had
Gm
So pull up a chair and forget about life.
Cm
It's a good thing to do now and then
Gm
And ff you like It here I have an idea

Tomorrow lets all meet again.
